Protest Staged In Houston, Texas, To Condemn Life-Imprisonment Sentence Against Noted Indian Physician Dr. Binayak Sen

Volunteers of the Association for India's Development, Houston (AID-Houston), participated in silent protests at University of Houston on Jan 26th, 2011 and Mahatma Gandhi District, Hillcroft Shopping Plaza on Jan 30th, 2011. They expressed their strong condemnation of the life-imprisonment sentence accorded to noted human-rights activist and physician Dr. Binayak Sen in the afternoon of Dec. 24, in Raipur in central India. Dr. Sen, along with two others, were accused of collaborating with anti-state forces.

The group of volunteers talked to the Indian community members about the issue and procured signatures on postcards addressed to Honorable Home Minister of India, Shri Chidambaram demanding release of Dr. Sen and others and repeal of draconian laws such as UAPA and CSPA in Chhattisgarh.
